WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT
Magnolia: Midcentury Memories

"I received a copy this afternoon and spent hours reliving my childhood. The book is wonderful - the best yet! Thanks so much for including so many interesting parts of my childhood. The Village, the churches, the groups, just great memories. Again, thanks so much!".....Sherrie Hassel

"My wife surprised me with the Magnolia book last week. GREAT JOB! I grew up in Magnolia (1949-1963) before heading to California and the Middle East for 20+ years. Although we've been in Redmond since 1988, we swing by Queen Anne or Magnolia, or both, at least once a month. You all get an A+ for getting it right. Way to go!".....Ross Jennings

"And a big thank you to you for your work on keeping our history alive. I love the new book ...amazing work all of you put into this."Cheryl McQuiston

"Your Magnolia history publication is wonderful. I have read a number of the pieces so far and I must say they touch my soul. It's like I'm growing up on Magnolia again as I closely relate to so many of the stories. Thank you, thank you!.....Major General Clyde Cherberg

Magnolia Historical Society Mission

Initiate interest in Magnolia history - gather and protect it for future generations.

Inspire the Magnolia community to help us gather acquisitions for our photo and document archives at UW Special Collections.

Invest in community historical research and writing of Magnolia history that encourages historic projects and events.

Encourage a more accurate "sense of place" through our work preserving the stories and image of Magnolia.
